A. Academic Qualifications

Courses	Description
Mendeley	In this courses, participants are guided intensively starting from the account registration process, installing the Mendeley Desktop application, managing scientific references, to citation and bibliography using Mendeley. Furthermore, participants also received material to build an academic network by utilizing the Mendeley Group feature. Thus, participants can search for and participate in Mendeley user groups around the world that have the same area of expertise.
Supervisor of Student Creativity Programs	The benefits for supervisors of student creativity programs are to help students find ideas, write ideas and write. Looking for new things in the world of creativity and innovation. Student creativity programs include written ideas, scientific articles, research, community service, creative initiatives, technology and entrepreneurship
Readiness of Human Resources in Entering the 4.0 Era	Facing Era 4.0, students must be more responsive. Students need high awareness to look around and enough networking. Students must have good planning because they will compete with foreign workers. That awareness depends on each individual. Students will one day become leaders, workers, or business people. Lecturers also play an important role in developing insight and knowledge about change. Lecturers must be able to motivate students in developing their potential and creativity.
SISTER (Sistem Sumber Daya Terintegrasi)	In order to improve the quality of Lecturers and Educational Staff. Each lecturer has various information related to tridarma activities, ranging from educational background, teaching activities, research activities, community service activities, and supporting activities. Often formal data related to these activities are still scattered and difficult to find when needed. Through SISTER, each lecturer can build a portfolio that compiles all tridarma activities he has ever done.

Stress Management	Workload and work responsibilities are felt to be getting heavier, with various internal and external causes, which have caused a lot of stress. This condition can ultimately reduce productivity, especially on the person concerned and can also have an impact on the work environment. In this connection, a work atmosphere that is less conducive if it cannot be managed properly will harm the institution that employs the person. For this reason, looking at developments and demands in the future, it is hoped that each institution can facilitate and maintain its employees so that they do not experience stress or at least each of them can control and manage the stress they experience, so that productivity is maintained and can even be further improved.
